Vol. I, Part I

NEW AND REVISED EDITION

CONTAINING THE RECORDS FOR THE SEASON 1902-3

EDITED BY FRANK KARSLAKE

Price £1 1s. 0d., bound in red art-linen, top edges gilt

NOTE BY THE EDITOR:—

This volume, originally issued under the title of Sale Records, has long been out of print, and is in much demand to enable complete sets of the publication to be formed. It will now be reprinted, and will be ready for delivery to subscribers at the earliest possible date in 1907. The editorship was not formerly in my own hands, and in my opinion, rightly or wrongly, the method of compilation was not of a character to merit the commendation of those to whom accuracy and means of immediate reference are desiderata. This refers especially to the old and out-of-date system of numbering the entries; cumbrous and fatiguing; and to the need for an Index, tiresome at the best, and an absolute nuisance when that index is untrustworthy. These drawbacks will be entirely absent from the new edition, as the opportunity will be taken to compile the volume upon the same plan as the present volume, viz., in one alphabet, without an index, and with a sufficiency of cross-references.

In revising the volume special care will be taken to avoid headings wherever possible, and the only correct plan will be adopted of placing the works under the names of their respective authors. By this means, together with the fact that the whole of the copies of any particular work which occurred for sale in 1903-3 will appear on one page, the saving of time in referring will be enormous, while the possibilities of comparison of states and prices will be of no less value to the searcher. It is true that the same material will be found in the earlier edition, but if the axiom is true that in business Time is money the cost of this new edition will be profitable expenditure, even for the original subscribers.

The frontispiece to the new edition will be a view of the house in which John Keats resided at Hampstead, and it will also contain plates of the mulberry-tree (still in full vigour), under which he wrote the Ode to a Nightingale, and of the bust to his memory, erected by Americans in Hampstead Church, in 1894. It is possible also that views of other buildings of literary interest, in or near Hampstead, may be included, as it is hoped that Book-Auction Records may be of sufficient value to merit permanent preservation.

PREFATORY NOTES

Some explanation is necessary as to the reason that the records for the season 1903-4 are now first published at the close of 1906. The first volume of Book-Auction Records contained the records for 1902-3, and the intention in December of the latter year was to proceed with the present volume. An illness of fifteen months' duration, culminating at that date in complete nervous prostration, rendered it impossible to continue the publication until after the lapse of a twelvemonth, and at that time it was not thought that the records of the season then past would be desired. The succeeding volume (containing the records for 1904-5), was, consequently, styled "Volume 2." There has, however, been such a persistent demand for the missing records, in order that the publication might be continuous and complete from the commencement, that the deficiency is now supplied. It is obvious that the volume could not take its place in its proper sequence as "Volume 2," and the only other course open, as it occupies the space between that volume and volume 1, was to style it Volume 1, Part 2.

It was originally announced that this volume would contain not less than 15,000 records, and the actual number selected proved to be 15,078. The mode of arrangement, however, in a single alphabet, brought together a large number of entries which, both as regards condition and price, were Practically duplicates, and as their inclusion would not only have served no purpose, but would in fact have merely wasted the time of subscribers, they were omitted. This is the sole reason why the volume contains 14,611 records instead of 15,078.

The portrait of Thackeray which forms the frontispiece to this volume is now published for the first time. It was drawn from life by the late Sir Henry Thompson about the year 1857. Sir Henry Thompson was a versatile man of brilliant talents, who, if he had not been one of the greatest surgeons of the nineteenth-century would have been one of its great portrait painters, or one of its astronomers. He exhibited fifteen paintings at the Royal Academy, and at the Salon at Paris. He was Thackeray's medical adviser, and in J. Cordy Jeaffreson's Recollections it is stated (vol. 1, pp. 258, 259), that the author of Vanity Fair "had to go often in his closing years to Sir Henry Thompson for surgical advice." Mrs. Ritchie (Thackeray's daughter) told the artist that the portrait was "an excellent one, taken in one of Thackeray's happiest moments." It is believed to be the only portrait of Thackeray in profile, as, in consequence of his nose having been broken when at the Charterhouse, portraits of him were usually made only in three quarter or full-face, and in the present case the drawing was made without his knowledge.

In the quarterly parts in which Book-Auction Records usually appears it is customary to include any contemporary matter likely to be of service to its subscribers—the booksellers of every part of the world. For that reason the following facsimiles are given of three postcards, written under different names, by a man named Powel, of Swansea, who has for the past fifteen years subsisted by swindling booksellers, his method being to obtain valuable works from one dealer without payment, and to at once dispose of them to some other dealer for the highest possible amount in cash. As a comparison of handwriting is the most certain mode of detection in cases in which names are being constantly changed it is hoped that the facsimiles now given may check this man's career of fraud among the subscribers to B. A. R.

Mention may also be made, in this connexion, of the founding of the Second-hand Booksellers' Association, on December 11, 1906, the suggestion for its formation growing out of the numerous cases of fraud to which booksellers have been subject. In addition, however, to this, its primary object, it is certain that other developments will ensue, and at any rate its mere existence is bound to lead to a greater sense of homogeneity among the members of the most interesting and most liberal of all the commercial callings.

BOOK-AUCTION RECORDS

Where no sizes are given the books are 8vo et infra. Where no binding is stated it is understood to be the original cloth or paper covers, as published. The following is a key to the abbreviations :—

1st	= first.	ills.	=	illustrations.
bnd.	= bound.	l. g.	=	gothic letter.
b. l.	= Black Letter.	L. P	=	Large Paper.
ca.	= circa (about).	lib.	=	library.

g. t.	= gilt tops; same as top edges gilt.	v. y.	=	various years.
		vell.	=	vellum.

w. a. f. = sold with all faults.

When a binding is stated to be, for example, mor. ex., t.e.g., the term t.e.g. —i.e. top edges gilt— implies that the other edges are uncut. When the other edges are cut the fact is stated.

In some exceptional cases—such, for instance, as a first edition of 'Waverley' or of a Keats' 'Endymion'—when the condition of 'original boards, uncut' exists, and accounts for an abnormal price, the description is given in full, without abbreviation.

In some instances autographs are stated in the sale-catalogues to be on the titles, or elsewhere in the books. When such autographs are not mentioned in B.A.R. it is only because they are of no known persons, and have no bearing whatsoever on the prices realised.

BIBLES. Arranged as follows:—1, English editions; 2, Latin; 3, Other languages; each section in the exact chronological order of publication, irrespective of versions.

ENGLISH

Bible (Holy) The Byble in Englysshe of the Largest and Greatest Volume, auctorysed and appoynted by the Commandmente of Oure moost redoubted Prince and Sovereign Lorde Kynge Henrye the VIII., oversene by Cuthbert (Tonstall) Byshop of Duresme, and Nicholas (Heath) Bishop of Rochester (with a Table to find the Epistles and Gospels after Salysbury use), b. l., woodcut title to O. and N. T. three other titles, cuts and initials (wants 3 ll. of Prologue, title to Apocrypha defective, 2 or 3 other ll. slightly defective), good, clean, sound copy, old rough cf., fo., Grafton, w. a. f., [at end, fynyshed in November anno MCCCCCXL], 1541 Bull, £19 5s S. June 17

* The Great or Cromwell's Bible. In this edition the arms of Lord Cromwell, who was disgraced in July, 1540, are erased from the titles.

—— Taverner's Bible. The Byble, that is to say all the Holy Scripture in which are contayned the Old and New Testamente, with the Apocryha (title to Old Testament, and first 3 leaves in facs., and a few leaves margined), b. l., mor ex., g. e., by Zaehnsdorf, in mor. drop case fo., J. Daye and W. Seres, 1549 £5 5s H. Jan. 15

—— Bible (transl. by T. Matthews) b. l., fo. (wanted title to O.T. and several leaves, w. a. f.), 1549 Ridler, £1 10s P. Oct. 7

—— (William) America, A Prophecy, front., title, and 16 plts., printed on one side only, orig. cold. issue, unbound, fo., Lambeth, printed by William Blake in the Year 1793 £207 H. Jan. 14

* Of excessive rarity, being usually found in plain black, or sometimes in blue and white. These plates form the complete work, and were bound up irregularly in a cloth case with other lots, but have been detached for convenience of sale. Each plate is remarkably clean and fresh, one of them bearing the watermark "J. Whatman, 1794."

—— Coloured Print of a semi-nude Figure, seated beneath a Tree, with Head bowed down, and nude Female Figure on the left, with arms outstretched to a Cherub, fo. (6⅞ in. by 4⅝) £42 H. Jan. 14

* This fine plate is of peculiar interest in connection with the foregoing (America), as being presumably a cancel—possibly for Plate 14, to which it bears certain resemblances both in text and design. The text, which is faintly discernible under the colouring on the upper half of the plate and can be read only from the back, is as follows:—

"As when a dream of Thiralatha flies the midnight hour:
In vain the dreamer grasps the joyful images; they fly.
Seen in obscured times in the Vale of Leutha, so
The British Colonies beneath the woful Princes fade.
And so the Princes fade from earth, scarce seen by souls of men,
But tho' obscur'd, this is the form of the angelic land."

An example of this Plate—which was apparently unpublished—is to be found in a volume in the British Museum lettered "Designs by William Blake," but the colouring is inferior and the text is illigeble.

—— The Shepherds Tales, Revised and Revived by R. B., Esquire

"Too true poore Lovers doe this proverb finde
No sooner out of sight than out of minde."

title slightly soiled and worn; small corner off p. 41, but no text gone except catchword (?), a few pages stained, otherwise large copy, orig. vell., printed for Robert Bostocke, at the King's Head in Paul's Churchyard, 1626 Pickering, £9 15s S. June 20

* A hitherto unrecorded edition, perhaps unique. It consists of the 1st Edn. of The Shepheards' Tales, 1621, and the continuation of the same work, as it appeared in Braithwait's Nature's Embassie, 1621, page 175 to 236; with a general title as set out above, and some preliminary matter added. (Collation: title, verso blank, 1 leaf; dedication to M. Richard Lowther, verso blank, 1 leaf; the prelude to his Shepheards' Tales marked A 3 and (A 4), 2 leaves, verso of A 4 being occupied with "Illustrations upon the Prelude," pages 1 to 45 The Shepheards' Tales, sig. A 2 to A 8, 7 leaves; B and C, 8 leaves each, verso of page 45 unnumbered and headed "A Pastoral Palinod." Then follows, page 175 to 236, "His Pastorals are here continued, with three other Tales," sig. N 1 to P in eights, and Q six leaves). As will be seen by the foregoing collation, the original titles and dedication have been suppressed; otherwise, the above collate exactly with the first issued, with the exception of the preliminary matter, which is additional here, and we believe that these additions (poems of Braithwait) are nowhere else to be found.

* In a letter dated November 5th, 1886, addressed to Mr. T. J. Wise, Mr. Browning writes: "V. A. XX is the Latin abbreviation of 'Vixi annos'—I was twenty years old—that is, the imaginary subject of the poem was of that age." When inserting the poem in his collected works Mr. Browning recast entirely the whole of the punctuation, a change which rendered clear and simple several passages which had before seemed somewhat involved. Pauline is one of the scarcest volumes in the list of modern poetical rarities. Copies of extracts from letters of J. S. Mill to W. J. Fox inserted, also a note relating to Pauline, by Mr. Campbell, cuttings, a review, &c.

* Pres. copy, to "R. Riddell, Esq., of Glenriddell," with autograph inscription on half-title to v., 1: "When you & I, my dear Sir, have passed that bourne whence no Traveller returns, should these volumes survive us, I wish the future Reader of this Page to be informed that they were the pledge of a Friendship ardent & grateful on my part as it was kind and generous on yours. That enjoyment may mark your days, and Pleasure number your years, is the earnest prayer of my dr Sir your much indebted friend The Author."

—— The same, 2 v., (no portrait,) cont. cf. gilt, with bookplate of Patrick Heron of Heron, in mor. case, Edinb. 1793 Macmartin, £150 S. June 22

* Evidently one of the copies secured by the author (see accompanying letter) for presentation to his friends. It contains forty entries in his handwriting made for his friend Patrick Heron. The poet has filled in with ink the names represented by asterisks or lines, and has made one or two corrections on the text. Two notes make reference to his contemplated departure to the West Indies.

With the volumes is an Autograph Letter (slightly defective,) from the Poet, 2½ P.P., 4to, "Dumfries, 16th April, 1792," to Mr. Creech the publisher, relating to this edition (1793) of his works.

—— The same, engd. ti le and port. of Gerarde, by W. Rogers, cf, J. Norton, 1597 Halewood £48 S. Apr. 19
* The Halliwell-Phillipps copy of this important Shak-spearean volume. On the fly-leaf Mr. Halliwell-Phillipps has written: "Quite perfect, and with an unusually fine impression of the title-page. This 1st Edn. of Gerarde's Herbal is of most rare occurrence in an absolutely perfect state.—J. O. H.-P." The engraved title-page shows Gerarde's famous garden in Holborn, which Shakespeare must have had in mind, when, in Richard III, he makes Gloucester say to the Bishop of Ely: "When I was last in Holborn I saw good strawberries in your garden there."

William Rog rs, the engraver of the title-page, was the first Englishman who is known to have practised copperplate engraving. The portrait of Gerarde (on B 6) is also on copper by the same artist. Lowndes had evidently never seen a copy of this first edition, as he states it to be a woodcut portrait. This copy has the leaf of Supplement to English Index so often wanting. During the last 18 years, although some more or less imperfect copies have been sold, only two that could be called in any sense perfect seem to be recorded, and when perfect there are few rarer Elizabethan volumes.

"If any apology be thought necessary for the appearance of the unfinished poem of Hyperion, the publishers beg to state that they alone are responsible, as it was printed at their particular request, and contrary to the wish of the author. The poem was intended to have been of equal length with Endymion, but the reception given to that work discouraged the author from proceeding. Fleet Street, June 26, 1820."

Underneath this Advertisement, Keats has written: "This is a lie."

* The earliest edition mentioned by Lowndes, Mr. Hazlitt, and the Dictionary of National Biography, was that of 1670, and the earliest quoted in Ingleby's "Shakespeare's Centurie of Prayse" was 1672. The above, though marked part I., is complete in itself, as the second part did not appear till 1672-3. Both Lowndes and Mr. Hazlitt, referring to the later edition, point out that this work is invariably found in "poor state." It is all the more remarkable, therefore, that the present copy is in such fine condition.

—— Guillelmi Lilli Angli Rudimenta (at end, Carmen ad Dicipulos de Moribus), b. l., mor. ex., g. e., 4to (Richard Pynson, 1512 or 1513) Perkins, £15 10s S. Jun. 21

* There can be but little doubt that this is the earliest printed edition of Lilly's famous Grammar. This extremely curious early English

School-Book commences: "To make latyn when I have an englisshe to be tourned into latyn I shall reherse it twyes or thryes and loke out ye verbe." This appears to be the only copy known of this issue. It consists of 8 leaves only, therefore its practical extinction can be easily understood. A very large and beautiful example.

—— Paradise Lost. As subscribers are aware, manuscripts find no legitimate place in B. A. R., but the following entry is of such overwhelming literary interest that an exception has been made in order that a permanent record of it may exist. The manuscript was offered at Sotheby's, on January 25, 1904, and was bought-in by the owner for £5,000. In the following April it was disposed of, through Messrs. Sotheby, to an American collector, but the amount, together with the name of the purchaser, did not transpire.

Milton (John) the Original Manuscript of Book 1 of "Paradise Lost," on 33 quarto pages; on a blank leaf at the beginning is the License; corrections occur throughout, and the errors in the first printed edition, which were corrected in the leaf of errata published with the issues of 1668, do not appear. There are numerous small differences in spelling which, as they in no way affected the sound of the words, could not have been noticed by Milton when the proof was read to him.

Line 2. mortall	=	mortal

In the margins are the printer's marks for the division into sheets.

No other portion of the Manuscript has been known to exist, since at least as early as 1731.

The following extremely important and interesting Autograph Letter from Jacob Tonson to his nephew, written in 1731, referring entirely to Milton, this Manuscript and Dr. Bentley's Edition of Milton's Works will be so'd with the Manuscript :—

February 31st, (1731)

Since you desire my opinion & thoughts upon Dr. Bentley's edition of Milton I, in compliance, write what follows

The Dr. in his Preface says Page 4 " That the faults might be corrigible from his Manuscripts but none exists."

Now, I here return you the Manpt. copy of the 1st Book, & there you will find the several places he affirms were altered by the Printer are exactly true to the copy & I think it is plain that the 1st edition was printed by this very copy which was preserved only upon account of the License written before it, & was afsigned over with the bond, when Symonds sold the copy &c. to Aylmer of whom I bought it & though there is no date to the license yet 'tis easy to know about the time it was granted by having recourse to the Company's Book where it was entered, & it must be before and near 1667. Pray learn which, & let me know it. If Mr. Aylmer is yet living he may give you some account of this matter, & particularly of Symons, the Printer &c.

As for Symons, the person to whom Milton sold the copy he was not a poor Bookseller as the Dr. says (page 2). I remember him & he was look't upon an able and substantial printer, &, I think, his Father a printer before him, & a strict Difsenter; he lived near Aldersgate & Milton in Jewin Street pretty near him, & they might be of acquaintance & perhaps if the former edition of Milton's book were seen he might have been employed by him before, but this is only conjecture. I think Mr. Martyn printed his history of England, & that it came out before Paradise regained, & Starkey printed that, & they were most likely to employ another Printer they were used to, & Symons might be dead.

As for his notes the first is enlarged from that in his Specimens & his opinion not so positive ; as to the alteration of Sacred for Secret—I desire any one to read Psalm the 18th verses 9-10-11-12 & Psalm 97 verse the 2d —In the 18th Psalm Verse the 11th I think makes for Secret before Sacred (Pray look on Milton in Addison's notes—Page 285—I think this makes for Secret.)

I suppose the Dr. is himself of that opinion but backward to own he would, or can pofsibly be mistaken.

Miltons employing a printer so near his own house is to me an argument that he did not trust wholly to the Printer.

As for the Editor, I think that is a mear Phantom of the Dr. creating, & raised on purpose to season in appearance his scurrilous invectives against Milton.

Page 4, he calls him by way of contempt " The blind Author." Page 10, he is " blind poor and friendless " which is false in the 2 last as may be proved from Mr. Edwards account of him (in Edwards life, written by himself.

As for the word Scaly verse 206, look in the Manpt. it is the only blotted word in the copy, & I know not if it is Scaly or Sealy—I know there is Seal skin used in binding but know not what it is.

Page 12 & 234 " Swalm, empty bombast, nonsense a bad writer, & a blotted copy "—Judge by the copy of this 1st book, if the copy was blotted & I can see no reason not to believe if the copy of the other book was to be found it might be as fair as this you have.

Line 248—Hath. " Hath could not come from the Poet " look in the Manuscript.

Verse 251—A fault neither to be forgiven Milton, nor suspected of him, vide the copy. Verse 82 " is not common sense."

Verse 287—" Optick glass brought in.

Verse 286—" Silly and superfluous "—505 you will find the Manpt. agreeing with the first edition, which confirms the Book was printed from it. Verse 580—" Pedantry, silly."—Verse 590—" and yet this has been represented as a celebrated line "—He means Mr. Addison who Vol 3d page 277 commends this verse—704 " A Strange blunder."

Mr. Addison has particularly in Page 263 & 266 commended Milton for these very things the Dr. condemns him, & one may find in his notes on Milton a vindication of Milton from a great many of the Drs. mistakes about the Poem—I cannot but observe that the Dr. takes not the least notice of Mr. Addison's name, Page 398—he says "an ingenious and celebrated writer"—By whom he must mean Mr. Addison in his notes. Page 353 makes afsumption against the 2 last lines of Milton, & for which sole reason I believe the Dr. says "the Gentleman" (no naming Mr. Addison) could eject these 2 lines," & after "these 2 lines cannot pofsibly be spared."

Spectator 269—Mr. Addison has described a false critic. I have observed that generally the Dr. avoids reflecting so much upon what Mr. Addison quotes, & commends in his notes, as he does upon all the wit & sense & sure Mr. Addison might in some places have been by name taken notice of.

Looking into Sir W. Temple's work Oct. 1st, Page 299 there is a character which I am pretty sure was drawn for our Dr. who had reflected in his arrogant way upon Sir Wms. naming & recommending in a former efsay Esops & Phalaris's epistles. Pray read it over, and judge for yourself Dr. Swift knowing this matter, pray give my most humble service to Mr. Pope, and shew him this, & the Manuscript of the 1st Book; it would rejoice my heart to hear that he was likely to take the Dr. to task for meddling with subjects nature had not intended him for. Sure the Dr. has forgotten that nobody else has, Mr. Boyle's fine vindication of Phalaris upon which the Dispensary has it "And to a Bentley 'tis we own a Boyle."

I am yet of my former opinion; the Editions will flag in a little time. The general esteem every one has for the Poem will make an edition go oft with my notes—But Bentley's notes if allowed to be right are enough to ruin the esteem for the Author, and I do verily believe that was, & is his design, but equally waives any other of his pretensions.

An edition from Mr. Pope would be most joyfully received by the world pray desire him to look into an 8vo book which I shewed him, & which I think Ld. Oxford has called the Life of Thos. Elwood writ by himself printed for J. Serl in Grace church street, there in Page 145 he gives some account of Milton, and Page 246 more, & relating to Milton's life and writings he says Page 154 he had always a man to read to him, which was usually the son of some gentleman of his acquaintance whom in kindness he took to improve in his learning in confirmation of this last I can give you this true accont I was very intimately acquainted when young, with one Mr. W. Davenant 2d son to Sir William the Poet, this gentleman was after of Magdalen hall in Oxford, & published a book printed there being a translation relating to old authors in 8vo. He was after unfortunately drowned in France as he was swimming.

This Mr. Davenant told me that Mr. Milton helped him in his study of the Latin and Greek authors to whom he used to go in order to his learning. That when his Father was in the Tower he was very much afsisted by Mr. Milton in his gaining his liberty, & (if I am not very much mistaken) he at the same time told me his Father in return upon the Restoration was very helpful to Milton, & Milton was very acknowledging for it, & upon that score offered his afsistance in doing any thing that should be grateful to Sir William. It was a little after Milton's death he told me this. I had a mind to have seen Milton's books & Mr. Davenant went with me in order to it. I was then in my prenticeship, & could not go except on a holiday or Sunday, so the next Sunday we went. Mr. Milton was some time before then removed from Jewin Street to Moorfields near the Artillery ground, & it being in the afternoon about sermon time, there was nobody at home, & so we returned home. I have often since when at Moorfields cast a look towards that Street, & the houses were then thought such as any substantial trader, or merchant might dwell in.

This is not what the Dr. represents him, "as living in a narrow dark room" or chamber, & as poor & friendlefs.

I believe in Tolands life of him some useful things might be found: he had 2 nephews both indifferent authors.

Phillips once wrote the English dictionary Folio & published a thick 12mo, an account of the Poets ancient, & modern, if in that, Milton should be mentioned it may be relied upon I am indeed at present (it cannot last long) not a little concerned in this Vultures falling upon a Poet that is the admiration of England, and its greatest credit abroad. I must further remark that the Dr. has most meanly avoided his Criticism upon the many, and some long quotations of Mr. Addisons notes—I dont find that in any of his remarks that in those places The Author could not write as printed—

The printer is not in them named a blunderer, nor any sham Editor supposed. This I mention again having since my fore mentioned hint gone through Mr. Addison's notes, and looked into the Drs. ; pray let me hear further about this matter—any matter though never so trifling about it, would be accptable & if very little in Bulk, perhaps you might get it franked.

Once more my most hearty service to Mr. Pope, & hope it will not be said "Pope are you asleep" ?

Yr. affecte. servant,
J. T.

This Manuscript is the property of Henry Clinton Baker, Esq., of Bayfordbury, and it has been in his family since 1772, when it was inherited by his great-great-grandfather, William Baker, from Richard Tonson, brother of the younger Jacob Tonson . . . . . William Baker was eldest son of Sir William Baker, M.P. for Herts., who married Mary Tonson, daughter of the younger Jacob Tonson, in 1742.

* On the half-title is the following note, "The alterations in this book are in the handwriting of Mr. Scott. (Signed) James Ballantyne." Small alterations and additions occur on nearly 50 of the pages, but one of the additions extends to 8 lines, beginning

"Such as the rugged days of old Deem'd fit for captive Nobles bold."

These lines, which now form part of the poem, were here added by Scott for the first time, and are thus the original MS. of a portion of his most celebrated poem. With the relic is an uncut copy of the second edition, giving the added lines. It is bound in half morocco.

—— The same, title defective and mended, margins of some of the prel. ll. mended, and 2 ll. cut into, first leaf soiled, 2 or 3 headlines cut into, otherwise good, sound, genuine copy, measuring 12 by 8 in., old cf., w. a. f., fo., printed for Philip Chetwinde (1663) Quaritch, £52 S. July 29

* The extremely rare first issue of the third folio of Shakespeare, issued without the seven extra plays. The title has the blank space left for the portrait which in this copy is occupied by an inscription, "This Book belongs to James Haygarth, Wm. Fothergill, Wm. Pennington and Wm. Wilson, it being bought at their joint expense." The preliminary leaves, of which it has the correct number, are all printed in large type. At the end of the volume are found the seven extra plays, of which "Locrine" wants the last leaf.

—— The same, wants all the beginning before p. 2 of The Tempest, and last leaf, but the majority of the leaves are sound, measuring 13½ by 8⅝ in., modern portrait after Droeshout inserted, vellum, g. e in hf. mor. slip case, w. a. f., fo.. printed py Philipe Chetwynde, 1664

The Tragedy of Locrine.

The Fourth Edition. | ornament on title | London printed for H. Herringman and are to be sold by Joseph Knight | and Francis Saunders, at the Anchor in the Lower Walk | of the New Exchange. 1685 |

This appears to be a unique copy of a totally unknown issue of the fourth folio Shake peare. The only imprint hitherto recorded (see Lowndes, page 2258 British Museum Catalogue, "Shakespeare" page 6, and Mr. Lee's "Life of Shakespeare" page 260) reads—London, | Printed for H. Herringman, E. Brewster, and R. Bentley, at the Anchor in the New Exchange, the Crane in St. Paul's Churchyard, and in | Russell Street, Covent Garden. 1685 | But the imprint is not the sole difference, for the whole title-page is more carefully printed, and a better and much heavier type has been employed (this is particularly noticeable in the words "The Fourth Edition.") The ornament just above the imprint is also entirely different. In the British Museum catalogue, and in Lowndes, a list of errors in the pagination of the Fourth folio is given, but the numerous errors in this present copy do not conform with either list. The volume is not only in extremely fine condition, but unusually large, measuring 14⅛ in. by 9⅛ in. (having a few uncut leaves) and never having been washed the text is therefore in its pristine state. Bound in old diced calf (of the end of the 18th century). Marshall, £215 S. Dec. 7

Shakespeare, Works, with Account of the Author by N. Rowe, 1st Edn. with the Poems (Curll's Edn.); together 7 v., orig. cf., plts., J. Tonson, 1709; E. Curll, 1710 Quaritch, £6 5s S. Feb. 1

—— The same, the Poems and Critical Remarks [by C. Gildon], 7 v., port. and plts., orig. cf., 1709-10 Pritchard, £8 S. June 21

—— The same, 7 v., old cf., v. III. rebacked, a few leaves stained, but fine set, 1709-10 Pickering, £15 10s S. July 28

* The first illustrated edition of Shakespeare, having a portrait frontispiece to each volume and an engraving to every play. Vol. VII. (the Poems, with a frontispiece illustrating the Death of Adonis) is rarely found. Douce points out the exceeding value of this first illustrated edition, because there are no other contemporary engravings which show the traditional costumes worn by 17th century actors in Shakespeare's plays.

—— The same, 7 v., port. and plts., L. P., vol. VII., wants title and port., orig. cf., broken, w. a. f., 1709-10 Maggs, £6 S. July 23

—— The same, 6 v., cf. ex., g. e., 1709-10 Moon, £40 S. Apr. 21

* Large and thick paper copy. A complete copy (such as above), containing a portrait frontispiece to each volume and an engraving to every play, is excessively rare. The Stratford bust was first engraved for this edition.

—— Workes of Shakespear. Collated and Corrected by the former Edns. By Mr. Pope, Dublin, 1725 Pearson, £3 10s S. Apr. 21

* The preface only. There is no mention of either a Dublin preface or edition (if an entire edition was ever printed) in Lowndes, and the writer of Pope's Life in the "Dictionary of National Biography" was unable to refer to either. The Shakespeare Catalogue of the British Museum likewise makes no mention of a Dublin edition or preface of this date, and, therefore, this preface is probably simply a trial proof It was printed the same year (1725) that Pope's first edition appeared in London.

—— Works of Shakespeare, in 8 v. Collated and Corrected by the former Edns. by M. Pope, each vol. with bookplate of R. Lovett, old cf., figure tooled on backs, very fine copy, Dublin, 1725-26 Pearson, £5 S. June 20

* The first collected edition published in Ireland. For a note, ¾ page in length, see auction-catalogue.

—— Works, with Glossary, carefully printed from the Oxford Edition in Quarto, 1744, 9 v., port. and plts., hf. bnd. (broken), uncut, 1747 A. Jackson, £131 S. July 29

* Interleaved throughout, and having numerous emendations and marginal notes in the handwriting of Dr. William Dodd, author of "The Beauties of Shakespeare," &c. An Autograph Letter of Dr. Dodd, 2 pp., 4to, is inserted in vol. I.

—— Plays, with the Corrections and Illustrations of various Commentators, with Notes by Sam. Johnson, port. by Vertue, 8 v., orig. boards, 1765 Pont, £3 3s S. April 21

* Keble's copy, with his signature on fly leaf of each vol.

—— Twenty of Shakespeare's Plays, being the whole number printed in quarto, ed. by G. Steevens, 4 v., L. P., old red mor. ex., g. e., 1766 Neitch, £15 5s S. Apr. 21

* One of 12 copies printed on Large Paper. Garrick's sold for £25 4s, and the present copy in the Laing sale for £34.

—— Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies, republished by Edw. Capell Text only), 10 v., red mor. ex., g. e. (Roger Payne), fine copy, Dryden Leach, N. D. [1767, &c.] Quaritch, £3 3s S. Mar. 8

—— The same, 10 v., orig. cf., D. Leach for I. and R. Tonson (1767-8) A. Jackson, £120 S. Dec. 7

* From the libraries of Thomas Gray (the poet), Edmund Malone and Richard Heber. Gray has added MS. annotations to the plays of "The Winter's Tale," "A Midsummer Night's Dream," "Antony and Cleopatra," "Measure for Measure," "The Tempest," "The Merry Wives of Windsor," and to Capell's Introduction to the Plays. Malone has written a list of the plays on the fly-leaf (3½ pages), and has annotated

"Henry the Fourth," "Cymbeline" source of the plot, "Hamlet" and "As You Like It" source of the plot (two notes), and "The Tempest."

* In the fifth leaf of the Table on the outside margin written longitudinally is the signature "Wm. Shakespere." This volume was bought amongst others in an auction in 1852 by the late C. W. Hird, Esq., of Portland Chambers, London, and has been submitted to various experts, and compared with the four or five hitherto known and recognised signatures of Shakespeare. While none of them give an authoritative decision the consensus of opinion goes to show that this signature is not an Ireland forgery, but was probably written soon after the book was published. The book has on the fly-leaf two signatures of "Thomas Bragge" a well-known Stratford-on-Avon Family contemporary with Shakespeare. It was left by will of the late owner to his grandson the present possessor. A printed account of researches in connection with the signature and two letters of Pym Yeatman accompanies this lot. There seems no absolutely certain argument against this being a genuine signature.

—— Vindication of Natural Diet, being one of a series of Notes to Queen Mab (a Philosophical Poem), with the half title, sewn, in mor. slip case, London, printed for J. Callow, Crown Court, Prince's Street, Soho, by Smith & Davy, Queen Street, Seven Dials, 1813 Atkinson, £83 S. Apr. 21

* The main object of this pamphlet was to show that a vegetable diet was the most natural, and therefore the best for mankind. Shelley was a convert to vegetarianism, chiefly, probably, through his intimacy with the Newton family, and there is no doubt that he adhered to his principles during the rest of his stay in England, that is from 1813 to the spring of 1818. This pamphlet is of excessive rarity, and this is the only copy known to have occurred for sale in an auction room. The only other copies known to exist are the one in the British Museum, Mr. Forman's copy, and that of Mr. T. J. Wise.

* The first edition, translated by J. Vizinus from the Hebrew. Only one copy, in the National Library of Lisbon, is recorded: "Cet ouvrage composé de 286 tables est si rare qu'on n'en connait qu'un seul exemplaire, celui de la bibliotheque royale de Lisbonne." It is also recorded by Panzer, Graesse, Freytag and Holt. According to Brunet's description this work should consist of 156 ll. whereas the present copy contains 168 ll. W. E. Curtis, in his authentic Letters of Columbus, says: "Of this excessively rare work Graesse states that the only copy known was in the Royal Library of Lisbon, but within the last few years another copy, with Columbus's calculations in the penmanship of Columbus to verify those of Zacuto, has been discovered among the books of his son, Fernando Columbus, by the librarian of the "Columbina" library at Seville, which possesses 6 other books that belonged to Columbus." It is the only known non-Hebrew book printed by a Jew in Spain or Portugal.
